BANKER CIGARS.

PUFF OF SATISFACTION.—Nothing is more grateful than the solace of a good-flavored and free-smoking cigar. Such are Mehegan's Bankers, the best cigars for their price in the country. They have become so universally popular in North Carolina, in Raleigh particularly, that all the inveterate smokers are breaking their pipes.

We honestly think two boxes of Mehegan's Bankers might be induced to influence even Grant to compassion in regard to the suffering Cubans.

We recommend the Bankers, and know whereof we affirm, for as we write we are consoled with the grand satisfaction of puffing one, and enjoy it hugely.—Norfolk Journal.

Pink Hardie is Agent for the Bankers, and says he has a letter from Mr. Mehegan, saying that the stock in them is better than ever. Go and try them.

[Editorial by telegraph.]

LIES LIKE A THIEF.

The Governor has been lying on us for twelve months; his prodigate son and organ lies on us to-day by calling us a Ku Klux. If we are, why don't the pumpkin faced rascal arrest us? We defy and dare him to arrest.

SAVAGE BUTCHERY.

On Saturday last we learned by telegraph that Mr. Patten, a highly respectable citizen of Alamance county, had been hanged three times that day by one of Kirk's officers, one Burgen, with the view to extort from him confessions of any crimes he might have committed, or might have knowledge of. The view was so appaling, that we gave the telegram, without comment, hoping it might turn out to be a mistake. On Sunday a reliable gentleman went to Alamance to inquire into the matter; he saw Mr. Patten and he saw Burgen. Burgen told him he had been hanged three times as stated; that he made no confessions, he knew nothing to confess. Burgen admitted that he hanged Patten; said he had hanged others in like manner to make them confess; some by the neck and some by the thumbs, and others he had threatened to shoot and put cocked pistols to their heads; he said this was necessary and he would do it again; that the mere arrest did not answer the purpose. All this is done, as we learn, not only with the knowledge of Gov. Holden, but by his order and approval. Joe said when the hanging of Patton was reported here, he was glad of it, and mocked at such calamity. This can be proven before a competent Court by reliable men, and Republicans at that, who were so shocked, appalled and disgusted, that they walked off resolved to vote against such a monstrous administration.

Comment is unnecessary. What does society, what does civilization think of such crime, such a monster of a man and such vile instruments of tyranny? Humanity shudders at the recital of such facts!

This man is the vile tool of others, who, through him, do these crimes, to force the people to keep him and them in power.—How long will such tyranny be tolerated? All this is known to Chief Justice Pearson, and he coolly tells the people and the sufferers there is no remedy! Habeas corpus is practically "played out" in his Court!—Shame, O, shame!

CONSIDER THE VERDICT.

Let us suppose that the popular vote on Thursday next shall be in favor of the Radicals. What will such a verdict be? It will be an endorsement of the public robbery, crime, repudiation, disgrace, infamy unutterable, of Holden's administration for the last two years—it will be the repudiation of virtue, intelligence and hope for the future, and the emphatic endorsement of vice, crime and public disgrace.

We put it to the cool, calm judgment of every North Carolinian to say, if this is not so. We must so admit and the world will so say. Of all the Radical candidates now before the people, not one of them, from the highest to the lowest, has condemned by his voice or his pen what has been done! Just think of it, people of the State, and consider, if you are willing to see such a popular verdict rendered. O, God! save us as a people and State from such deep and awful disgrace!

ADMONITORY.

The conspirators, Holden & Co., begin to see that they have shouldered a load they cannot carry and some of them are already trying to sneak out of sight with the view to avoid responsibility and liability, criminally and civilly. After the election is over, efforts will be made to straiten matters and make terms with those injured and outraged. We see movements in this direction already.

We admonish the people against making terms—let these enemies of liberty and right not only answer, but be held to the strictest liability. The criminal liability cannot be compromised, and the injured parties owe it to themselves, their families and society to make them answer civilly.

THE HAND WRIVING IS SEEN ON THE WALL.

The voice of condemnation and execration of Holden & Co. on account of their treacherous, treasonable, despotic and infamous course of action towards the people of the State, and Caswell and Alamance, particularly, is coming to their ears. They already begin to hear the thunders of indignation coming, not only from the people of this State, but from every State in the Union, not only from our party, but from all parties, and especially from the Republican press at the North. They have not yet heard but the distant bellowing of the storm that hastens to engulph them. They will be of all men, the most infamous, disgraced, outcasts from all parties that ever lived.

It is not surprising to see these graceless wretches already denying their connection with, and approval of, Holden's action. Pool says Holden has gone farther than he ever thought of going, or suggested he ought to go, and Thomas Settle gets the Standard of yesterday to deny his connection with it. "Rotating Dick" refuses to go on the Court Martial or to have any thing to do with it and so does Gen. Jones. It will be as we said to some of Holden's understrappers, when the crash comes, Pool, Settle and others, will desert Holden and leave him to the merciless storm,—if they can. This they can't do. Settle is guilty, Pool is the prime mover in the conspiracy, and we intend to hold them and their co-conspirators up to public scorn and execration, until they will skulk from the presence of society as prowling wolves and hyenas fly from the light of day. Pool, Holden and Settle are not all who shall be exposed, there are others who fill and disgrace high places that we intend to hold up to public condemnation.

As for what the Standard says of Mr. Settle, we repeat, we are prepared to prove what we said, and that he lately went to Washington City and made the most infamous and slanderous representations to the President about the people of the State and Caswell and Alamance particularly. He went for the deliberate and willful and wicked purpose of inflaming the mind of the President against the people and to stimulate him to sustain Holden's armed movement to force the election their way or defeat it. Do you understand that Judge Settle? We mean what we say.

We call upon all men of all parties to go to the polls on Thursday, and deposit a vote of condemnation against the Holden despotism and the base conspiracy against the lives and liberties of the people.

WHAT WE NEED.

What our people need most, next after a faithful and economical administration of the State government, is capital and labor. We need at once a half a million of industrious laboring citizens, farmers, mechanics and citizens of all sorts, and we want $100,000,000 of capital. How can we get them? Will laborers come among us while our State government is administered as it is? If an honest straight forward, industrious man in New York wanted to come South, what motive has he to come to our State? None in the world; there is no protection for his industry; vagabondism under existing rule is at a premium. The man who works pays his earnings into the Treasury of the State to sustain vagabond life. Just think, Holden's administration up to this day, has cost the State for current expenses, over $1,000,000. The same may be said of a capitalist. Is he coming here to embark his capital, when the Legislature, in less than twelve months, tries to increase the State debt over $36,000,000! Why, he could expect not only to loose all his earnings but every dollar besides. Then again, do honest, peaceful good men, whether capitalists or laborers, want to come to a State where the Governor, in order to force the people to keep him in power, makes open war upon them? No sane man would think of doing so, any more than he would think of embarking his capital or settling among the Comanche Indians.

We repeat, after a faithful administration of government, we want capital and labor—these we can't hope to get until we place honest, faithful, capable men in office. The people are now called upon to elect a Legislature. Will they elect honest, capable men? We trust so. We have tried Radicalism and Radicals long enough. We have experienced and witnessed the blight and curse they have spread over our people and country. It is intolerable to all classes, and now let them be cast under. Let every man feel it his special duty, no matter who he is, to step forward and exert his influence for a change of rulers.

MORE ARRESTS IN ALAMANCE.

A telegram announces the arrest by Kirk's men, yesterday, in Alamance, of T. M. Holt, Esq., Dr. Frank Mebane, a Mr. Cook, and Anderson Thompson, Esq., and some others.

The process seems to be, that Burgen, Kirk's Lieutenant Colonel, hangs up a man by the neck until he is nearly strangled, or ties him up by the big toes or the thumbs, and thus continues to torture him until he confesses something; either that he is a Ku Klux himself, or that such and such a man is, and straightway the persons thus pointed out are arrested, and, perhaps, subjected to the same tortures to make them confess their complicity.

And this is liberty! This is law in North Carolina—the law of the despot, Holden, who boasts of being "backed by the President." Let the people of this State know, it, and vote to sustain his administration on Thursday, if they will. Let the people of other States know it, and at the same time know that even these outrages have not forced the people to resistance, because they hope that right will sooner or later prevail, and bloodshed be avoided. Let the world know that these are our oppressions, and the last hope, the Courts, are denied us. But the day of reckoning will come!

THE INTEREST OF THE WHITE AND BLACK PEOPLE.

The Radical leaders in this State have lent all their energies in teaching the colored people to believe that they are their only friends and all other people are their enemies and seek to re enslave them.

In the first place, these dirty scamps know they are seeking to make false impressions, they know that the white people could not re-enslave the black people if they would and that they would not if they could. There is not a handful of white people in North Carolina to-day who would favor a re-enslavement of the black race, if the power to do so existed.

But this is beside any practical rule of the relations between the white and black races. The black people are free and they will remain so.

It is important both to the colored and the white people of the State that they should be at a good and candid understanding with each other. The black people should share the confidence of the white people, and on the other hand, the white people should share the confidence of the black people. Now we ask the colored man how this can be, while the black people vote in a solid body against the whites and the whites against the blacks? Such mutual confidence cannot exist until there is a change and that change ought to take place at once.

The white people need the labor of the black people and the black people need the land and capital of the white race. How can they work together successfully while they continue in political hostility to each other? It is manifest there must be a cordial and friendly understanding—the white man must protect and encourage the black man in all his rights and privileges, and the black man must do likewise to the white man.

We have this further to say to the black people—nine-tenths of the white Radicals who profess to love and adore you are utterly bankrupt in pocket and character—they can't give you bread and meat or place to live or work, if they employ you to do a trifling job, generally they won't pay you—they prey on your fears and prejudices simply for the purpose of getting your votes and nothing more, many of them were cruel masters and overseers while you were slaves, as you know, and the unprincipled scamps change their tune and words, not their hearts, now, with the view only to get into office. There is this further fact: Four-fifths of them are as ignorant as they are corrupt; in short, they are bloats and blasts in society, they are worthless nuisances and vagabonds. Cut loose from them and help those who can and will help and sustain you, and we will have better times.

THE END AND THE MEANS.

In a speech of Governor Graham in the Convention of 1861, on the subject of test oaths, &c., he said, "Our people are resolved not only to be independent and free in the end but in the means. They are resolved not only to be free men at the termination of the contest, but will not surrender their liberties during its progress. Nor will they be satisfied with the flimsy pretext and excuses for the sacrifice of a sacred principle, that it can do no harm except to traitors. They intend that even traitors shall not be condemned except in accordance with those great principles of right and justice, which are of universal application. For they know full well that it is upon the persons of friendless or odious men that despotism whether of a single tyrant or of a mob, first lays its hands."

These remarks were published and republished by Governor Holden in the Standard with the highest praises of their author as the wisest and greatest statesman of the day. The rights of accused or arrested citizens as secured by the Constitution were then regarded by that paper as sacred even when the charge was treason. But now habeas corpus, trial by jury and all the great safeguards of the Constitution are played out.

A secret outrage more than six months ago upon the person of a negro, who fired upon persons in disguise, is held to be cause enough to place the whole people of a county under martial law, and to seize and imprison and threaten with death by a military sentence any man whom a capricious power or malignant informer may doom to such a fate, and Governor Graham who now, and always raised his voice against such tyranny and called for the interposition of the law, is met with the clamor, that he is a Ku Klux, that they murdered Stephens and Outlaw; that he is no better than they. That a military Court and speedy death is the just desert of them all. A note was picked up at the door of Gov. Bragg telling that him "his and Graham's hands were not clear of the blood of Stephens and their time would come next."

Let those who revel in this State of things beware—power in republics not unfrequently changes hands, and they who abuse it to day may soon be under the necessity of invoking for their own protection, the sacred principles which they now disregard and trample under foot. It is only justice, truth, and liberty as enthroned in the Constitution that can have permanent sway in America.

HOLDEN'S ARMY DESERTING HIM.

We are glad to learn that many of the misguided men who accepted armed service under the petty despot Holden, are deserting his armies in large numbers. We are not surprised at this; we trust that most of these men have learned that Holden's purpose is not only unlawful, but that he is a mere upstart, a petty despot who provokes a row and perpetrates crimes like a drunken insane bully on a muster day, for which, in due course of time, he will have to account at the bar of Justice. In our judgment this dirty fellow Holden will have to account for his crimes and his accomplices as well. We hope the people will feel it their duty to make him and them answer until the demands of the law and justice are satisfied so far as they can make restitution.

Remarks of Hon. William H. Battle.

The substance of the remarks of Hon. William H. Battle before His Honor, C. J. Pearson, on the 27th July, in support of the following motions made in the case of A. G. Moore, et parte.

1. For an attachment or rule, to show cause against the Governor for not making a sufficient return to the writ of habeas corpus.

2. If this writ of attachment against the Governor is not proper, then for a similar writ or rule against Col. George W. Kirk.

3. That the Marshal of the Supreme Court be directed to proceed further in the execution of the writ directed to him to bring the body of the prisoner before your Honor.

May it please your Honor, before entering upon the discussion of the merits of the motions which we now make, I must be permitted to submit a few preliminary remarks as to the manner in which the counsel for the petitioner have been treated. Although by the 11th section of the Bill of Rights, it is declared in all criminal prosecutions every man has the right to have counsel for his defence, yet the organ of the Executive in this city has done all in its power to deprive the petitioner of the benefit of this valuable right, by attempting to destroy the influence of his counsel. The counsel have been vilified and abused in various ways, have been called Ku Klux and stigmatized as the sympathisers with murderers and assassins. Nay, sir, one of my friends and associates has not only been abused, but threatened. An article against him closes with the emphatic word, Beware! Beware of what? Why, of having his property, his liberty or his life taken from him. And for what? For nothing but for appearing as counsel in this, and similar cases. Why, sir, has not a man, who is accused of the highest crimes—of murder, arson and rape—the right to employ counsel in his defence? Does not your Honor well know that no Court in North Carolina will permit a man to be tried for his life without the benefit of counsel, and that if he be too poor to employ counsel himself, the Court will assign one or more to defend him? And are those counsel to be stigmatised as sympathisers with the crime of which their client is accused, and perhaps unjustly accused? Are they to be called murderers, or the sympathisers with murderers, because they defend a man charged with that crime? So far as I am concerned, the all or of the Standard knows that, some months ago, I availed myself of an opportunity on a trial before Mayor Harrison, of denouncing in the strongest language I could employ, the Ku Klux and all other secret associations it formed for purposes of mischief. My remarks were written out at the request of the local editor of the Standard and published by him in his paper as a part of his account of the trial. Sir, I have always disliked secret political associations of any kind, whether bearing the names of Know Nothings, Leaguers or Ku Klux. In my opinion all such associations should be prohibited by law. I have nothing further to say on this subject, except that this attempt to prevent our doing our duty to our client will utterly fail. We shall discharge that duty boldly, fearlessly, and without regard to menaces or abuse, come from what quarter they may.

Our motion for an attachment or for a rule to show cause why an attachment shall not issue against the Governor, is founded upon the fact that he has in some way come or been brought into this case, to take the place of Col. G. W. Kirk, the person to whom the writ of habeas corpus was issued. He is recognized by your Honor as having the petitioner in his custody, or under his control, and he ought to be compelled to produce his body before you, or be attached for not making a sufficient return to show why he has not done so. The spirit, if not the strict word of the habeas corpus act of 1868-'69, chap. 116, sec. 10 will fully warrant the action of your Honor in doing so. Your Honor knows judicially from the proceedings in this case that the petitioner is in the custody or under the control of the Governor, and unless he be like the King or Queen of England, incapable of doing wrong, he ought to be held responsible for the wrongful detention of the prisoner.

Assuming then that the Governor ought to stand in the place of Col. Kirk, I will proceed to show the insufficiency of his return, and I will do this by comparing it with your Honor's opinion. I shall not read the whole of the return, because it is unnecessary to do so, but I call your Honor's attention to the following passages:

(We omit these passages because they have been so recently published in the daily papers of the city that they must be in the recollection of every reader.)

Now let me read what your Honor says, after stating the argument of the Governor's counsel, your Honor thus remarks upon it,

(His Honor's remarks are omitted for the same reason that we omit to publish the passages from the Governor's return.)

It is claimed by those who justify the action of the Governor that his return is in accord with the opinion, and is fully and completely supported by it. I must beg leave to differ from them, for I think that the language of the return if it is to be understood according to its ordinary and plain import, is in direct opposition to the opinion. The return is as silent as death about the declaration of the Bill of Rights that the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended. It is equally silent as to what your Honor says about the delivery over of the prisoner by the military to the civil authority. The return nowhere recognizes the supremacy of the civil authority, over that of the military. That supremacy is expressly declared in the 24th section of the Bill of Rights in the following strong and emphatic language: "The military should be kept under strict subordination to, and governed by, the civil power." The return of the Governor ignores this altogether, though the opinion of your Honor asserts it. It is true that the Governor catches at an expression in your Honor's opinion that the "safety of the State is the supreme law" as an apology for his conduct, but he does not notice what your Honor adds, "I venture to hope, as evil as the times may be, our country has not yet reached the point when a resort to extreme measures has become a public necessity."

Sir, if the occasion were not so solemn a one, I would say that the pretense that the safety of the State at this time justified disobedience to the mandate of the great writ of habeas corpus was a mockery and a farce. Nothing but the fact that the State is upon the verge of destruction will justify a resort to this plea of tyrants, and there cannot be any plausible pretense that such is the case at this time. The counties of Alamance and Caswell, which have been declared to be in a state of insurrection, are now completely under the control of the military authorities, and there is not the slightest danger to the safety of the State. Why not, then permit the civil power to assume that supremacy which is assigned to it by the Bill of Rights—it is that for which we, as counsel, contend, and in the name of liberty and law, we ask of you to grant it to our oppressed client.

But, sir, the return of the Governor interposes another objection to the relief for which we apply. He says that the posse comitatus cannot be called out to enforce the execution of the writ, because the county whose posse is to be called out is in a state of insurrection, and that your Honor has decided that all the citizens of that county are insurgents. It is true that an expression to that effect is to be found in the opinion of your Honor, but I presume that your Honor did not intend to carry the doctrine to the extent contended for, and that upon further reflecting you will frankly so declare. An insurrection is the rising up of a portion of the people against the constituted authorities of the government. Those who thus rise up are insurgents, but surely those who remain loyal and faithful to the government cannot be so considered. If so, the innocent are guilty and must be punished for a crime they never committed! Let us suppose a case or two, and see to what results the doctrine will lead. This putting of supposed crimes is often the strongest mark of argumentation. Let us suppose, then, that the counties of Guilford, Rockingham and Person are declared by the Governor to be in a state of insurrection. Would that make your three Associates, Justices Reade, Dick and Settle, who reside each in one of those counties, insurgents? Let us suppose a still stronger case, which is, that the county of Wake is declared to be in a state of insurrection, would that make the Governor himself, who is a citizen of that county, an insurgent? A line of argument which leads to such a conclusion cannot be correct and ought not to be followed.

May it please your Honor, I think that I have shown that the return of the Governor is insufficient to justify his refusal to have the prisoners brought before you, and it follows from the express provisions of the habeas corpus act that we ought to have an attachment against him, or, at least, a rule to show cause why such attachment should not issue.

But if your Honor shall decide that you have no power, under the circumstances, to attach the chief executive officer of the State, then the writ of attachment should be issued against Col. George W. Kirk, the person to whom the writ of habeas corpus was issued. A full and complete return to that writ should be made either by the Governor or by Col. Kirk, or else all the benefit of what has been called the great writ of habeas corpus in favor of the liberty of the citizens, is, for the time, lost to the people of North Carolina. I hope the Governor will reconsider the matter, and pay that just obedience to the laws which every citizen, from the highest to the lowest, owes; and that no such dangerous precedent shall be set as a refusal by the Governor to obey the mandate of the highest judicial officer of the State.

It is rumored that a military Court has been ordered by the Governor, but whether to try and punish the prisoner if found guilty, or only to act as a Court of inquiry, I do not know. We oppose any such proceeding. We demand that the prisoner be brought before you that you may enquire whether there be any sufficient grounds for his further detention. Your Honor is much better qualified to make the proper investigation as to the guilt or innocence of the prisoner than any military Court can be. Why, then, should you not be trusted to do it? If the testimony supports the charge, whatever it may be, against the prisoner, your Honor will do what the law requires, either commit him to jail for trial, if the offence be a capital one, or admit him to bail, if it be of a lower grade.

Sir, if the military Court shall dare to act in this matter, the members of it, and they who ordered it, will be held to a fearful account hereafter. Changes, physical, moral and political are constantly going on in the world, and they who commit a high handed violation of the law may live to see the day when they may be called upon to answer before the proper tribunals of justice for the crimes which they have perpetrated.

If your Honor shall feel it your duty to refuse the first and second of our motions, then we insist upon the third, and earnestly urge upon your Honor to take such steps in enforcing obedience to the writ of habeas corpus which you have issued in favor of our client, as to make it effectual for his relief.

CHIEF JUSTICE PEARSON and HABEAS CORPUS "played out" in North Carolina!

TIM LEE AND DICK SHEPPARD.

Our little squib at Timothy yesterday, about a lawsuit with a colored man for wood hauling, rather waked up the gentleman from Boston, and caused him to publish a communication in the Standard of this morning which looks very much like the production of a jack leg specimen of what he himself once facetiously denominated as "thim li-yars."

Dick Sheppard, the colored man who hauled the wood for Timothy, called on us to-day and gave us the facts in regard to the transaction, which are substantially as follows: Dick, or his son, had agreed to haul wood for Timothy at 95 cents a cord; one lot from near the Rorque place, and one from the other side of town, near Pettiford's.

The first lot was hauled and eventually paid for, according to Lee's measurement. Dick's wagons commenced hauling the second lot, and brought in 110 cords, as put up by the wood cutter, and twenty-three loads of broken cords, which Dick says were about three-fourts of a cord each. During the time this last lot was being hauled, Tim, or his agents, were selling it off about town about as fast as it was brought in, so it could not be measured after it was hauled, and Dick claimed pay according to the cording in the woods and the wagon loads. This Timothy would not accede to and Dick sued him before Justice Adams, who on the evidence before him gave judgment in Dick's favor. Tim took an appeal to the Superior Court, where he has managed to have it put off for two or three terms. Dick's lawyer has never received any part of the price of the hauling, for one reason, at least, which is a very good one, Tim has not paid it to Dick.

Dick says it is false about Tim proposing to leave the settlement to three colored men or any body else. That is a matter of veracity between Dick and Timothy, and we leave it there.

Bob Smith was the man who cut and corded the wood, and he says that Dick's account of the matter is correct. And we are requested by Dick Sheppard to refer colored men to these men for information as to the truth of the statements, and as to what sort of a man Tim Lee is.

But poor Dick has not got his money yet for hauling Tim's wood, and is not likely to get it for some time to come, but for all this he is very fond of colored people and wants their votes.

IN THE MATTER OF JOHN KERR AND OTHERS—HABEAS CORPUS.

The Marshal of the Supreme Court has served the writ of habeas corpus. Kirk retains that he holds the parties applying for the writs, by order of Governor Holden and refuses to obey the writs.

Counsel moved to-day at 11 o'clock, A. M., before Chief Justice Pearson, for writs of attachment against Kirk, and for proper precepts directed to a proper person, to bring the parties held by Kirk. The motion was debated by Messrs. Battle and Merrimon.

The Chief Justice will declare his opinion at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

P. S. Both motions refused. The Chief Justice says he has no posse comitatus to enforce the writs.

ANOTHER FALSEHOOD.

The Standard this morning contains a statement to the effect that Dr. John A. Moore, candidate for the Senate in Alamance and Guilford, had acknowledged that he had taken the third degree in the Ku Klux organization, and had implicated all the Conservative members of the last Legislature, except two, as belonging to the same, and that Dr. Moore had withdrawn from the canvass, all and every of part of which statements, we are authorized by telegram from Dr. Moore, to say is utterally untrue.

Let the Standard try again, that lie don't stick. We think the people of Alamance are sufficiently cursed and oppressed by the military, without the Standard joining in and adding to their troubles by LYING on them.

Registration to 5 o'clock this afternoon—Whites 779, blacks 1229.

MEMBERS OF MECHANICS FIRE COMPANY No. 2.—You are hereby notified to attend a regular meeting Wednesday evening at 8½ o'clock, P. M., in full uniform. By order of the Foreman,

In answer to an anonymous inquirer, we would state that we know no reason why a Deaf and Dumb boy may not make an honest living by selling Deaf Mute alphabets. If, however, it be true, as we learn it is, that industrious deaf mutes can always obtain employment, we think it would be better for them, especially as the selling of alphabets is at best a precarious occupation, and is very near allied to begging.

Dialogue Between the Governor and the Chief Justice.

Chief Justice—Well, Governor, how do you like my habeas corpus opinion?

Governor—When I first read it I gave it a hearty secret cursing, and thought I had no escape from my position except by a servile submission to the Constitution and law as they seemed to be expounded, or by an open rebellion against them. In my dilemma I desired time to reflect which way I should go. You may depend upon it, Chief Justice, I was sorely puzzled what to do. Once I thought I would seek yourself for counsel; but I recollected how grievously you felt insulted, because one of the counsel for the prisoner had read to you, in his argument, a part of the oath of a Judge, in which he swears that he "will not delay any person of common right, by reason of any letter or command from any person or persons in authority to me directed, or for any other cause whatsoever, and in case any letter or orders come to me contrary to law, I will proceed to enforce the law, such letters or orders notwithstanding."

Now, when I read this oath after you gave your opinion, I felt surprised how pat it seemed to be to the case in hand, but I consoled myself that if there was any wrong in the correspondence between us, I did not begin it. In that same oath I found, also, that the Judge swears that he "would not maintain privately or openly, any plea or quarrel depending in any of the Courts," and here was I on the one side and the prisoner on the other, and the case was a case in Court.

C. J.—Then, Governor, you felt I suppose, highly conscientious scruples upon the subject?

Gov.—No, Ch. Justice, not so much as one might suppose. To be candid with you it was not conscience that pestered me, that does not often get in my way. Here lay my difficulty. I had been publicly proclaiming, for months, alleged outrages upon the laws and liberties of the people, and calling upon all law-abiding citizens to support them by law-abiding means; and now, thought I to myself, suppose I tread on the law after the Supreme Court has declared it, and should disregard the Constitution expounded by that tribunal, how should I stand before the public? If I, the Governor, used force to subvert the law, might not a private citizen, with equal right, do the same thing without force?—Then if I was resisted while trampling on the rights of the people, and bloodshed were to follow, who could or would hold me harmless?

In a future day I might be tried for murder, or sued for damages and might be made a pauper, and ignominy would follow the house I have striven so hard to build up to respectability. In a word, Chief Justice, after due reflection upon your opinion as law, I could not see the legal or moral difference between the old fashioned Ku Kluxing in the dark in disguise, and the new fashioned Ku Kluxing with Kirk and his armed warriors in open day.

C. J.—Well, Governor, if these were your reflections why did you not recall Kirk, and hand over the prisoners to be tried by the civil authority?

Gov.—Why now Ch. Justice you are just quizzing me! If you had asked me this question an hour after you had delivered your opinion, I might have been inclined to do so. It is, however, always good to consult the sober second thought. So I waited till I could better study your opinion, and see if there was no interpretation which would fully justify me and hand me down to posterity as a law-abiding Governor. I am, myself, you know from long experience, pretty smart at turning words over and finding out hidden meanings. It was, and for months has been a favorite scheme with me to carry the elections; I felt it to be a smart policy to conduct them under the appearance of form. Form is a great thing, Chief Justice, when one intends to impose on the people. I advertised outrages for a long time; I magnified them by the most artful language, and made them culminate just at the time when the Ku Klux were organizing their greatest efforts for the polls. Just at this time I thought I could shoot terror into their ranks, by sending out among them the notorious and dreaded Kirk, with power to arrest any and every person whom I pleased. And at this very moment when my ingenious work was progressing so prosperously, your opinion came, and for a while I felt like old Satan when he exclaimed, "me miserable! which way shall I fly? which way I fly is hell." If I recall Kirk I shall restore confidence to the Democrats, and a sweeping victory at the polls may doom me and my measures forever. If I keep him in the field, in the face of your opinion as then construed, I shall arouse the indignation of the people, and possibly of the whole Court, and may suffer alike a horrible defeat.

C. J.—Well, you appear to have been a great sufferer indeed. Pray come to the point, and tell me how you have been relieved by the sober second thought?

Gov.—Why, Ch. Justice, it is as plain as daylight. I am now surprised that I ever could have been such an ass as to curse it. The fact is I was momentarily panic stricken. I would have gone to you at first, but for the reason mentioned; but as you had bestowed high compliment on my counsel, I concluded I would advise with him; so I called him in, and we commenced to see what you had decided. Well, we agreed that you had clearly decided the following points:

1. That I, as Governor, had the power without, as well as with, cause to declare a county in a state of insurrection; and no human power could question me for so doing; therefore Alamance and Caswell, in law, were in insurrection.

2. That I had a right to arrest in these counties whomsoever I pleased, without warrant or any alleged cause.

3. That the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus was not suspended; and that each person so arrested had a right to have the cause of his arrest examined, and to be discharged absolutely, if no offence was made to appear, and to be discharged also upon giving bail wherever crime was alleged and proved, unless the offenses were capital, and the proof evident or the presumption great.

4. That whether discharged on bail or committed for trial the prisoner was to be bound over to the civil authorities, and could not be tried by a military commission.

When my counsel and I agreed that these points very clearly had been decided, and proclaimed by you as the constitutional law of the land, I felt that I was "in the last ditch, and gone! gone!! gone!!! But my learned counsel—God bless him forever—cried out "no, no, no, I see a star! I see, I see a star! it brightens, brightens!—It is a full orbed sun!" but still I was not buoyed up; and in my agony I exclaimed "Oh Richard, Richard, impossible!" But he caught me by the arm, and pointing to your opinion, said in raptures, "read, read!" and behold there it was written "I (the Chief Justice) feel assured he (the Governor) will in like manner give due observance to the law as announced by the judiciary. Indeed he cannot refuse to do so, without taking upon himself the responsibility of acting on the principle, "the safety of the State is the supreme law." Yes, said my counsel, the Chief Justice has said, "the safety of the State is the supreme law." The constitution and the laws, as well those of the United States as those of the State, are subordinate to that great supreme law, the safety of the State." And you see the Chief Justice says, when they come in conflict with this supreme law, they are to stand out of the way. And the Chief Justice says, also, you have the right to take on yourself "the responsibility of acting under that great supreme law." Chief Justice, I was almost delirious in the newly inspired hope of being on the side of the law in tearing up writs of habeas corpus and handing the hangman's rope over to my faithful Kirk. I looked into the face of my learned counsel and there sat the honest conviction of his delighted soul in the playful but confident curl of his upper lip. "Enough, enough," I cried, and, in the intensity of my feelings I fell on my knees and thanked my God aloud for my own great and happy deliverance through the aid of the habeas corpus when properly expounded by you, Chief Justice.

C. J.—I fear, Governor, that your learned counsel has somewhat misconstrued my meaning, I did not intend ——

Gov.—(Interrupting the Chief Justice.)—No matter, Chief Justice, what you intended, the law is plainly written by you and has gone out to the world. Moreover, the safety of the State may as well depend upon adopting the wrong construction of a law as upon annulling it altogether. I am satisfied with your opinion, and so is my counsel. Business calls me away, I shall see you shortly about the codification of the laws. (Exit Governor.)

C. J.—(Soliloquizing.) Little did I expect this of the Governor, I am amazed and almost bewildered; that he should maintain that my opinion tolerates his refusal to obey the writ or his purpose to try the prisoners by military law, is distressing to my ardent hope of fame. Here I have been zealously engaged for more than twenty years in building up for myself the renown of a learned Judge, that I may go down to posterity like Coke and Kenyon. For twelve years I have been Chief Justice of a court on whose bench sat a Taylor, a Henderson, a Gaston and a Ruffin, and have been persuaded, that I stood, if not foremost of them all, yet by the side of the greatest of them. Can I allow all this milk to be split—all this fat to go into the fire!—never! never!! During the trying days of conscription I was the champion of the writ of habeas corpus even to the extent of declaring—see Wyricks case in Winston—that though 'the good of the public service" in time of war would suffer by discharging a soldier, yet he should have justice according to law. I called on God to forbid a denial of such justice, and proclaimed for the fifth time in my life, for the reading of posterity, 'fiat justicia ruat coelum,' let justice be done without regard to consequences."

Is it possible that the Governor intends to commit the horrible crimes of murder and treason against the constitution and laws, under the sanction of my opinion and name, and to cover me, too, with the bloody mantle which will forever hang on his shoulders? If he should seek to make my opinion responsible for his outrages, I must and will, as a man, rise up and cast him off. (Exit.)

THE NEW TROUBLES IN NORTH CAROLINA.

It is impossible to observe without regret, not wholly unmixed with shame, the statements which come day after day from North Carolina. That outrages of the most shocking character have been perpetrated with impunity in some parts of that State, is a fact which, unfortunately, admits of no dispute. Equally true it is, that if the ordinary processes of law are insufficient to secure the arrest of the offenders, the Executive of the State is entitled to the assistance of the Federal Government. So far, the case is in Gov. Holden's favor. But even the Governor, in his efforts to enforce the authority of law, should act within limits which the law prescribes. Gov. Holden, however, has set himself up as a sort of dictator—proclaiming counties in a state of insurrection, perpetrating all manner of arbitrary acts through agencies unknown in a free community, holding persons in custody in opposition to judicial orders, and actually proposing to try them by military commission.

Proceedings like these were bad enough when a gigantic rebellion furnished exigencies which justified them. Now, they are not only startling, but, to all appearance, indefensible. They look particularly bad, moreover, because the State is the theater of an active canvass, which will culminate in an election next Thursday, and Holden is so much of a partisan that the impartiality of his conduct is—to use the mildest term—doubtful. Holden's newspaper, the Raleigh "Standard," boasts that he is "indorsed" by the President.—We hope that the President, in his "indorsement," discriminates between acts in conformity with law, and in harmony with justice, and acts in defiance of law, and repugnant to American ideas of order and liberty. If United States troops are to appear in the transaction, at least let there be some guarantee against the application of their authority and influence to unworthy ends. There is a strong national aversion to military commissions in a State endowed with a regularly organized judicial system, and to the presence of United States troops as partisan auxiliaries at an election. —N. Y. Times.

False Pretences.

The vast and continually increasing sales of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have provoked the envy of a certain class of dealers in various parts of the country, who are trying to substitute their utterly worthless local nostrums for the most popular proprietary medicine in the world. These imposters hope by their false statements to obtain from the millions who patronize the great American Tonic, a sufficient number of customers to make their speculations upon the health of their neighbors profitable. As the demand for Hostetter's Bitters is now so large and urgent as to tax to their fullest extent the facilities for its manufacture, these petty attempts to wring in the merest trash by false representations are of little consequence to its proprietors. They are, however, a serious evil to the victimized. If, for example, at this warm season, when a real invigorant is greatly needed, the sufferer from general debility, indigestion, biliousness or nervous weakness, is coaxed into using a wishy-washy compound without any medicinal virtue, instead of the sovereign specific in which the rarest tonic and alterative vegetable elements are scientifically combined, it is obvious that he will rue the day when he allowed himself to be thus deluded. It is in the interest of parties who have been or may be influenced by the persuasion of plausible charlatans, that this article is published. With the light of twenty years experience to guide him, why should the invalid take a leap in the dark. aug 2-1w

OBITUARY.

Died in Newton, N. C., on Saturday morning July 23d 1870, MRS MARY JONES MURRILL, wife of JAS. F. MURRILL, Esq., in the 30th year of her age.

Mrs. Murrill left her home and friends in the eastern part of the State a few years ago to accompany her husband to the mountain region in the hope of recovering from his feeble health. She has endeared herself to every community in which she has lived while among us. She has lived here less than two years, and the last six months she has been an invalid, and part of the time a great sufferer, and yet she has left many to mourn her early death and to cherish her lovely virtues and her christian character. She adorned her christian name, and having washed her robes in the blood of the Lamb, she has gone up through great tribulation to sit down with her four departed infants around the throne of God. She died in the triumph of faith, commending her husband and three little children to the protection of her Heavenly Father, who, she testified, had taken care of her during her own orphanage. Her little babe, a lovely little boy, about four months old, had died the evening before. They both sleep sweetly in the same coffin—the babe on its mother's arm. They were lovely in life and in death not divided. We mourn gentle sleepers, but only for ourselves, not for you. Our loss is your eternal gain.

DIED.

At the residence of his son, Dr. G. H. Macon, at Brinkleyville, Halifax County, N. C., on the 23d July, of typhoid fever, Dr. NEREY L. MACON, in the 68th year of his age.

Dr Macon was a native of Warren County, and nephew to the statesman and patriot, Hon. Nathaniel Macon. He began the practice of medicine in his native county at quite an early age, and attained a celebrity and scope of practice that falls to only a small minority of country physicians. In addition to a well cultivated native talent, he won the confidence of patients and owed much of his success to his unremitting attention and unwearied watchings at the bedside of the sick, when their situation required such attention.

Dr. Macon married a daughter of Gid. Alston, Esq., of Halifax, by whom he raised a large family of children, most of whom survive him. His wife died some years ago, since which he has resided mostly at Ringwood, in Halifax county, pursuing the practice of his profession in the surrounding country, but spending a part of his time with his son at Brinkleyville. He had many warm friends, not only in the particular localities where he has resided, but throughout the State, who will receive the intelligence of his death with saddened hearts.

LOUISVILLE, August 1.—The negroes are voting without molestation.

FOREIGN.

PARIS August 1.—In addition to the revival of the passport system, applicable to all persons who are subjects states that while fighting is going on in France must have a special permission from the Minister of the interior to enter, leave or travel through France. French citizens found in Baden are conducted to the frontier in chains and compelled to pay for places where in they are locked up to save them from violence by the people. Duke Cadero now at Stockholm, goes to Copenhagen on a similar mission. The Liberte says Belgium's occupation by the English would unsettle Belgium, wound France and probably draw Austria and Russia into the war. Belgium's army of observation occupies the line and between France and Aix La Chappelle.

ROME, August 1.—Another detachment of the French army left Civita Vechita for Marseilles.

PARIS, August 1.—The hesitation about opening hostilities and the delay in the Imperial declaration of war, is here ascribed to the consciousness on the part of Napoleon, that the war would be long and painful, owing to the superiority of the needle gun over the Chassepot, as has been already demonstrated in encounters between skirmishers.

LONDON, August 1.—British troops do not occupy Antwerp.

LATER.—No battles yet, though the streets are full of rumors not credited that the French fleet has attacked the defences of Hamburg.

Tuesday Evening Dispatches.

OHIO.

CINCINNATI, August 2.—The Democrats carried Covington and Newport.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, August 2.—Yesterday dispatches from Saarbruck report no important operations along the entire line.

A large body of Prussians are moving on Fortsch.

Replying to questions, Gladstone said in the House of Commons that the policy of the Government was not one of armed neutrality, but of friendship to both combatants. He declared that the obligation of the Vienna treaty ended with the German Empire. The Government was doing everything to enforce the observance of neutrality, but British power was restricted to British waters. All legal restraints had been imposed on the sale of coal.

LATER.—War news this morning meagre, and unimportant.

The journals appear to-day without a word from the rival armies on the Rhine.

Active recruiting for the marine service has been ordered in English dock yards.

The impression prevails that the arrival of the fleet in the Baltic alone prevented the Prussian advance through France to Paris.

Advices from Prussian sources mention the prevalence throughout Germany of an unwavering assurance of ultimate victory.

BRUSSELS, August 2.—A correspondent of the "Independence Belge," writing from Metz asserts that the first great battle will be fought Saturday or Sunday next, or Monday at the farthest. He underscores the sentence following, viz: This is sure.

VIENNA, August 2.—Austria is mobilizing fifty thousand men to watch the Bohemian frontier.

So well known, and which gave entire satisfaction last season, can be obtained of me at Raleigh, or my agents Messrs. Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern.

THOS. H. BRIGGS.

Read Certificates below.

PITTSBORO', N. C., May 6th, 1870.

T. H. BRIGGS, Esq.: Dear Sir:—I used the "Utley Cotton Press," I purchased from you last season, and consider it to be the best Press I ever saw. Having packed bales to weigh from five hundred and ninety (590) to six hundred and twelve pounds (612.) I consider it the best and most durable Press I ever saw used, and can cheerfully recommend its use to the farmers of North Carolina.

Yours truly, C. W. BYNUM.

FRANKLINTON, N. C., April 16th, 1870.

MR. THOMAS H. BRIGGS: Dear Sir:—Yours of 13th instant inquiring as to the merits of the "Utley Cotton Press" is to hand and in reply I would say that I have tried other Presses and consider the press upon which the Utley Press works cheaper, simpler and more durable than any I have met with.

Yours very respectfully, JAS. B. WILDER.

RIVER DAWN, CUMBERLAND Co., N. C., April 22nd, 1870.

THOS. H. BRIGGS, Esq: Dear Sir:—In reply to yours of the 13th asking how I was pleased with the Utley Press I used last season, I would say that it gave entire satisfaction.

Respectfully yours, CHAS. H. BLOCKER

HILLSBORO', N. C., April 22nd, 1870.

THOS. H BRIGGS, Esq., Raleigh, N. C.: Sir—I have used "Utley's Cotton Press" for baling hay for some months. It works well and gives entire satisfaction. I regard it as the best Hay Press I have seen.

Respectfully, E. H. POGUE.

RALEIGH, N. C., June 10th, 1870.

T. H. BRIGGS, Esq., Raleigh, N. C.: Dear Sir:—I used the "Utley Cotton Press" I purchased from you last season. I packed my own crop of cotton also other crops for my neighbors, making in all one hundred bales. I consider it superior in all respects to any Press I have ever seen and that it is every thing the patentee represents. I packed bales weighing from four hundred to five hundred and ninety-seven pounds.

Yours truly, W. T. HOWLE.

THE EQUITABLE

HAS BECOME THE LEADING COMPANY OF THE WORLD.

Its New Business (sum assured), for the year 1869, exceeded that of the second company in rank by more than TWENTY-FIVE MILLION DOLLARS.

In 1860 it was the 5th Company in new business for the year; in 1861 it was the 9th; in 1862 and 1863, the 7th; in 1864 and 1865 the 6th; in 1866, the 4th; in 1867, the 2d; in 1868, the 2nd;

In 1869 it was the FIRST.

The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "annual" AFTER THEY ONCE BEGIN TO PAY THEM AT ALL; but they DO NOT BEGIN TO PAY until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.

One hundred Dollars paid in dividends, at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals FOUR HUNDRED AND THIRTY-SIX DOLLARS paid at the end of FOUR YEARS, interest at six per cent.

Applications for Assurance may be made to any of the Society Agents throughout the country, or in person or by letter to the General Agents.

Gentlemen of character desirous of forming a connection with the Society as Agents are invited to communicate with the General Agents.

SWEET QUININE

Is a Recent Improvement.

Replaces the use of the BITTER SULPHATE QUININE, with which all are familiar.

Dose for dose, it is

WARRANTED

Fully equal in every way to Bitter Quinine,

AND, LIKE IT, IS THE ONE

Great, Positive, and Unfailing

CURE

For all Diseases of Malarious Origin.

Fever and Ague,
Intermittent Fever,
Chill Fever,
Remittent Fever,
Bilious Fever,
Dumb Ague,

and the long train of disorders following these when neglected.

SWEET QUININE

is made solely from Peruvian Bark (so is Bitter Quinine), therefore is of Vegetable origin, and not a Mineral poison, but on the contrary is proved to be one of the elements found in the blood of all healthy persons.

SWEET QUININE

acts as an antidote to, as well as a cure for, malarial or miasmatic poison; the absorption of which by the lungs causes Intermittent Fevers, etc. The only advantage claimed for over the use of old Bitter Quinine is the entire absence of that intense, persistent bitterness, which in the latter is an insurmountable obstacle to its use with most persons, and always with children.

SWEET QUININE

is in two forms—in POWDER, for the use of Physicians and Druggists, and FLUID, for use in the family and for the general public.

NON-EXPLOSIVE COMBINATION BURNING FLUID

THE CHEAPEST, BEST AND SAFEST ILLUMINATING AGENT IN THE WORLD!!

No more Exploded Cans!—No more Exploded Lamps!
No more Smoke!—No more Grease!
No more Fires!!

EVERYBODY PREFERS IT AFTER GIVING IT A TRIAL!

IT costs less!—It lasts longer!—Gives a more Brilliant Light!—May be burned in hand lamps, without chimney.

Guaranteed to make a better and safer light than Coal Oil and to be NON-EXPLOSIVE!!!

No accidents have ever happened with it.

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 8th 1868.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.
